Mary: Hey, there's a new movie in the streaming platform.

Kevin: What is it?

Mary: It's called: "Wild Harry Returns". I think it's a western.

Kevin: Mmm, I don't know. I don't like westerns very much. I prefer action movies.

Mary: I think western movies are more interesting than action movies.

Kevin: Well, they always make me feel sleepy.

Mary: The only new action movie is The Fast and the Furious chapter 20.

Kevin: I love those movies! Let's watch that one!

Mary: Seriously? Nineteen previous movies of the same thing haven't been enough?

Kevin: Okay, okay. I'll watch it later. How about that one?

Mary: Which one?

Kevin: The Dark Hill of Silence. Looks fun!

Mary: Sounds like a horror movie, and I think they are too scary.

Kevin: I think horror movies are exciting!

Mary: Look! There's the new Hobbit movie!

Kevin: Fantasy movies are usually too long. I prefer science fiction, they are cooler than fantasy movies.

Mary: Well, there's this new science fiction movie I want to watch: "Robot Wars".

Kevin: Sounds great! Let's watch that one.

Mary: Let me get some popcorn.

Lucas: Wow, this is an amazing movie! I love action movies.

Gina: It is okay, but I'm not enjoying it as much as you are!

Lucas: Seriously? There are so many action sequences! It has been exciting since the very beginning.

Gina: I prefer horror movies, to be honest.

Lucas: Oh, I see.

Gina: I wanted to watch this movie because Black Widow is my favorite comic character. But I think I prefer her in the comic book.

Lucas: Well, that's true. The movie is not as good as the comic.

Gina: Have you ever read Death Note?

Lucas: Mmm, no, I don't think I have.

Gina: That's one of my favorite comic books! It's really exciting! There's a TV series and a movie.

Lucas: Maybe we can watch Death Note when we finish watching Black Widow.

Gina: That sounds like a great plan!

Juan: I think everything's ready for our trip.

Miguel: Not everything. I haven't bought the bus tickets yet.

Juan: How long does it take to get to Huatulco?

Miguel: According to this website it takes 6 hours to get there by bus.

Juan: I better pack my travel pillow.

Miguel: Ok, I'm buying the tickets now. We are going to arrive in Huatulco on Friday morning. My cousin is going to pick us up at the bus station.

Juan: That's cool!

Miguel: Yes, I told you my cousin is really nice. He says we can stay at his house, too.

Juan: Awesome! I was considering camping.

Miguel: That won't be necessary. My cousin is a tour guide. On the first day he's going to take us on a free boat tour around the bay area.

Juan: A free boat tour? So good!

Miguel: The weather forecast says it will be sunny on Friday and Sunday, but it will rain on Saturday. I hope it doesn't rain. I really want to go surfing and snorkeling on Saturday.

Juan: If it rains, we can go to that indoors pool we saw online.

Miguel: Yes, that's a good idea.

Juan: And on Sunday I'm going to buy some souvenirs in the local market.

Miguel: Good plan! I want to buy a T-shirt.

Jose: Yes, I agree.

Luisa: Me too.

Roberto: Me too.

Luisa: Look, there are so many bus stops!

Jose: Yes, we can take the touristic bus in different places, and we can get on and off all day.

Luisa: Great! I think we should meet in this bus stop.

Ana: Which one?

Roberto: The one in front of the drug store?

Luisa: Yes, that one. What do you think?

Jose: That one is okay. I think it's at the beginning of the route.

Luisa: Yes, it is. We can do the entire route during the day.

Roberto: That's going to be exhausting!

Ana: We don't have to finish the entire route. We can stop anytime and anywhere we want.

Roberto: Cool! Hey, look! There's a bus stop in the park. We can have a picnic there.

Luisa: I love that idea!

Jose: I don't know. I don't want to carry our food the entire time!

Ana: We don't have to. There's a mini supermarket in front of the park. We can buy some groceries there.

Jose: Good idea!

Ana: We have to clean up after we finish eating. I have been to this park before. They sell some biodegradable plastic bags there.

Luisa: The. We can buy some plastic bags in the park to clean up.

Roberto: Then we can get on the bus again and get off at the new mall. There's a new cinema in there. We can catch a movie in the evening.

Ana: Good plan! Let's finish our tour in the cinema. Oh wait! We have to buy the tickets online. Let me log in now.

Transcript:

Mike: Where can we go this summer?

Jack: We could go to the beach.

Mike: Sounds good! What options do we have?

Jack: We can go to Oaxaca, there are many options there.

Mike: What do you prefer: Huatulco or Puerto Escondido?

Jack: Huatulco is more expensive than Puerto Escondido.

Mike: Well, then we're going to Puerto Escondido.

Jack: Great! We can visit my friend Roberto. He lives there. He could show us good places to eat and have fun.

Mike: When can we go?

Jack: We could go next month, what do you think?

Mike: Perfect! Let's look for bus tickets.

Steve: Oh no! I hate sushi. Maybe we can have a salad.

Angie: Really? A salad? That's a side dish! I don't like salads.

Steve: Mmm, how about a burger?

Angie: Yes! Let's go there!

Clerk: Welcome to the Burger Palace. May I take your order?

Angie: Hi! I'd like to have the cheeseburger with fries.

Steve: Me too, please.

Angie: Make it two, please.

Clerk: Would you like the Cheeseburger Mega Super Combo?

Angie: What's in it?

Clerk: It's has the cheeseburger, large fries, large soda and an ice-cream cone.

Angie: That sounds delicious! I'd like the Cheeseburger Mega Super Combo, please.

Steve: Oh wait! Can I change my order? I'm allergic to cheese.

Clerk: Of course. What would you like?

Steve: I'd like the chicken sandwich and fries, please.

Clerk: Would you like the Chicken Sandwich Mega Super Combo?

Steve: No, thank you. I don't want any desserts.

Clerk: Ok. Let me repeat your order. It's going to be a Cheeseburger Mega Super Combo and one Chicken Sandwich with fries. Is that correct?

Angie: Yes, that's correct.

Clerk: That'll be $10.50.

Jack: Do you have the survey results?

Dan: Yes, here they are.

Jack: How many people answered?

Dan: Let me check. . . two hundred and twenty!

Jack: Great! That's going to give us good information. Let me get ready to graph the results.

Dan: Ok.

Jack: Alright. So, what was the first question?

Dan: Would you like to belong to an after-school club?

Jack: Got it. What are the answers?

Dan: Two hundred and fifteen said yes.

Jack: Wow! That's surprising!

Dan: Yes, I think our community would really appreciate having after-school clubs.

Jack: Next question?

Dan: Would you like to be in a dancing club?

Jack: What are the results there?

Dan: Fifty one said yes.

Jack: Ok. Next question, please.

Dan: Would you like to be in a sports club? And seventy three people said yes.

Jack: Oh, that one is popular.
Dan: It sure is!
Jack: Ok, what's next?
Dan: Would you like to be in a music club?
Jack: How many people said yes for that one?
Dan: Fifty eight.
Jack: Good numbers! That's all?
Dan: No, there's one more question: Would you like to be in a book club?
Jack: What's the result for it?
Dan: Thirty three.
Jack: Really? That would be my favorite!
Dan: Well, I would prefer the sport club too!

Julio: Hi Miriam, how are you?
Miriam: Hi Julio! I'm doing well thanks. I'm on my way to the market.
Julio: This early in the morning on Saturday?
Miriam: Yes, I always go shopping on Saturday mornings to the market. Everything's fresh and there aren't many people.
Julio: Um, good point. I was calling to see if you wanted to have lunch today.
Miriam: Oh, I'm sorry, I'm afraid I'm busy. I'm cooking for my family today. How about breakfast tomorrow morning?
Julio: Sorry, I'm playing soccer tomorrow morning. What if we go to the cinema tonight?
Miriam: I would prefer going to the cinema on Friday afternoon. I have some coupons we can use, but they are only valid on Friday afternoons.
Julio: Okay. That sounds like a plan. What if we go listen to a band that plays in a bar nearby after the movie?
Miriam: Sounds great!

Julio: Yes, I love listening to live music at night.
Miriam: I can do lunch tomorrow if you are free.
Julio: Sorry, I can't. I do some volunteer work every Sunday afternoon.
Miriam: Wow, really? That's great! What kind of volunteering do you do?
Julio: I plant trees and pick-up garbage in parks and green areas. It's really nice, you should come one.
Miriam: That sounds exhausting! I do exercise everyday in the morning, I don't think I have any energy left.
Julio: Well, what if we go have lunch on Friday, then the cinema, then the bar. Is that okay?
Miriam: Sounds perfect! See you on Friday.
Julio: See you then! Bye
Miriam: Bye!

Track 18

Presenter: Welcome back to Radio QTPI. I have a special guest today, Lisa Johnson, a full-time environmental activist. Welcome Lisa.
Lisa: Thank you for having me.
Presenter: Lisa, can you tell the people what is the issue that concerns you the most.
Lisa: Sure. A big issue we face nowadays is the huge amount of single-use plastic waste we create every day. I think that most people are not aware of how much of this garbage comes out of their homes, schools and workplaces every single day.
Presenter: Lisa, could you tell our audience what you mean by single-use plastic?
Lisa: Of course. Single-use plastics are used only once before they are thrown away or recycled. These items are things like plastic bags, straws, coffee stirrers, soda and water bottles and most food packaging.
Presenter: So these items are absolutely everywhere!
Lisa: Exactly. We produce more or less 300 million tons of plastic each year and half of it is disposable! This kind of plastic is not biodegradable and usually goes into a landfill where it is buried, but it also ends up in the ocean. We produce hundreds of millions of tons of plastic every year, most of which cannot be recycled.

Presenter: Wow! That's terrible.

Lisa: It is. This is why I'd like people to be informed so they reduce as much as possible single-use plastic in their daily lives.

Presenter: Can you share some ideas with us, Lisa?

Lisa: It'll be my pleasure. There are many simple actions you can do. If you want to make a difference, you have to change something you do every day. If you use bar shampoo, you avoid using a plastic bottle. You can find these shampoo bars in many supermarkets. The amount of shampoo bottles floating in the ocean is impressive. But this is nothing in comparison to the amount of plastic water and soda bottles. If you carry reusable water bottles, you can reduce waste.

Presenter: I'm proud to say I always have my reusable water bottle around. It's really practical.

Lisa: That's great! Another good suggestion I can make is to avoid buying snacks in convenience stores. They are usually wrapped in plastic and you can see those wrappers everywhere you go. If you don't eat snacks packed in plastic, you avoid the plastic wrap. You can bring some snacks from home in reusable bags or reusable containers.

Presenter: And I'm sure that makes the snacks healthier too.

Lisa: That's true!

Presenter: Well Lisa, thank you so much for coming today.

Track 21

Lisa: Let's get everything ready for our camping trip.

Ana: Good idea! Let's see... If we take the bus, it will drop us a few meters from the lake campsite.

Lisa: That's good, but if we go by car, we will be able to go to the town any time we need to.

Ana: Yes, you're right. We will be able to sleep in the car, if it rains.

Lisa: Then we're taking the car.

Ana: You should pack a swimming suit. If the day is hot, we will swim in the lake.

Lisa: Ok. If we get there early, we will find a good camping spot.

Ana: Let's leave very early in the morning.

Lisa: I will take my camera, if we go hiking.

Ana: I'll pack the binoculars too. If it isn't cloudy, we will have an amazing view of the valley.

Track 22

Jack: Hey Luis, where are we going camping this weekend?

Luis: Hi Jack. I have the perfect place! Redwood Lake.

Jack: Redwood Lake?

Luis: Yes, some friends went camping there last week and they said it's amazing.

Jack: Cool!

Luis: They say it's very popular this time of the year, so we have to get there early to get a good camping spot.

Jack: Ugh, I hate crowded campsites!

Luis: Don't worry. If it is too crowded, we can set camp near the woods. Everybody wants to camp by the lake, but my friends say there's always plenty of space near the woods.

Jack: I like that! Do you think it will rain?

Luis: The weather app says it will be sunny. But if it rains, we will rent a cabin. There are many cheap cabins on the other side of the lake.

Jack: Okay. I hope it's sunny. If it's sunny, I will go swimming all day long!

Luis: Haha, sounds good! But you can rent boats around the lake. If we get a boat, I will go fishing.

Jack: I've never gone fishing! I'll join you for sure!

Luis: Do you still have that camp stove?

Jack: No, it broke on the last camping trip.

Luis: Well, if we can buy one before the trip, we will cook the fish we catch.

Jack: Awesome! We can also build a campfire, can't we?

Luis: I'm not sure! If we camp near the woods, maybe we won't let us build one.

Jack: Oh no! I already have a huge bag of marshmallows to roast. If we can't build a campfire, I will be very sad!

Luis: We should leave very early to get a nice camping spot by the lake, then.

Jack: You're on! I'll be here at 5 am!

I've been there before!

- A: Where are you going next vacation?
B: Nowhere. I was going to Mexico, but my parents had to cancel our trip. I really wanted to go.
A: Really? I've been there before. Mexico is an amazing place to visit. You would love it.
B: I know. When were you there?
A: I've been to Mexico three times in my life. I've had lots of fun.
B: And what was your favorite place?
A: It is hard to say. I have visited Cancún, Mexico City, and Guadalajara.
B: Is it true that people in Mexico eat insects?
A: I don't know. In Mexico I have eaten tacos, quesadillas, esquites, and lots of street food, but never insects. Oh! And I have drunk tequila.
B: Did you visit Teotihuacan?
A: No. But I have seen the Chichen Itza Pyramid. It is a wonder. Hope you can go soon.

Emma: Hi, Harry, I have something very important to tell you.

- Harry: Really? What is it?
Emma: I will study abroad. I got a scholarship to study Medicine in Cuba.
Harry: You must be kidding! That's amazing.
Emma: I know. I'm so happy.
Harry: When are you going there?
Emma: At the end of the semester. My parents are moving with me.
Harry: They must be very proud of you.
Emma: It will be great. But I will miss you a lot.

Planning a trip

1. What are you doing?
2. I'm packing. I'm going to Brazil. Mom didn't tell you?
3. She didn't tell me anything. But... it's great, bro. What are you going to do there?
4. I would like to go to Sao Paolo.
5. I heard Sao Paolo is a beach.
6. Yeah. I would also like to go to a soccer match.
7. Me too. Can I come with you?
8. Not this time, bro.
